LOCKPORT TWP. H.S., LOCKPORT, ILL.

Travel - Many Modes

Webster defines transportation as "systems and modes of conveyance of persons or goods from place to place." Since man first realized that it was easier to ride than walk, he has been finding better and easier ways to travel. Today, with jets, express trains, and streamlined automobiles, man can go anywhere he wishes in a matter of hours.

To us of LTHS, transportation is usually a more down-to-earth problem: How to get to and from school and other activities and events. The 1962 LOCK Staff now gives you a glimpse into our means of TRAVEL — MANY MODES.

Dedication

Because of his devotion to the students of Lockport Township High School, we of the LOCK staff dedicate the 1962 LOCK to Edward Flink, principal and dean of boys.

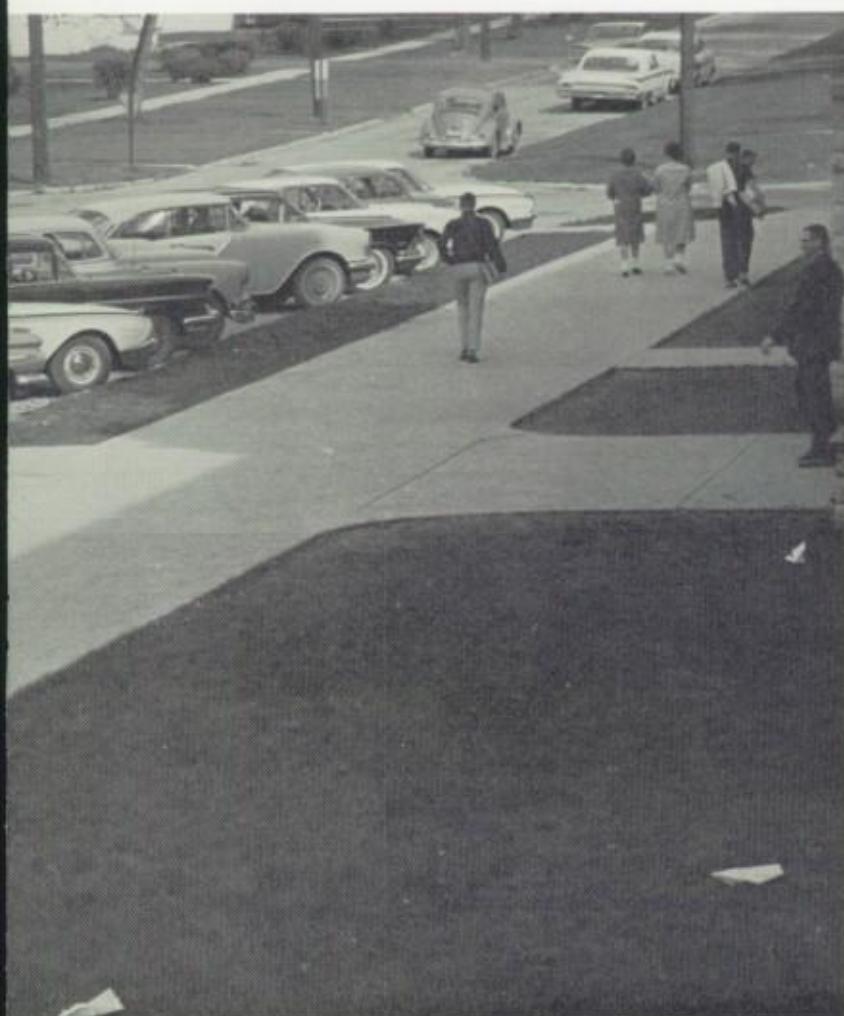

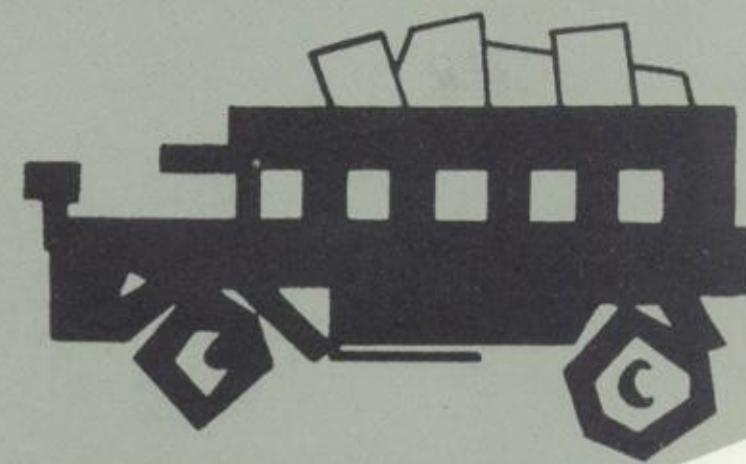

We'll always remember Mr. Flink's cheery face at the assemblies, where he has taken personal charge of the students' conduct. We thank him for his co-ordination of the school transportation system which fingers into the ninety-nine square miles of Lockport School District. We like that broad grin he has for everyone, no matter how many problems are presented to him.

For his many years of service, we sincerely say, "Thank you, Mr. Flink. You're great!"

the Bridge

Our pilots and skippers have steered Lockport Township High School smoothly and safely through the year '61-'62. It has been a year of growth, progress, and development.

The administration is always guiding us toward a better education. They are preparing each of us to embark on the turbulent sea of life.

The Board of Education, like the sweeping arm of the radar, keeps us on an even keel with the wishes of the community. One of the decisions of the community was to provide better education for the students of the district by building a four year high school on the West side and a two year high school on the East side.

"Aye, aye sir!" we say to you officers in command. We shall strive to help you keep the standard of education high at LTHS, one school or three.

Dr. Blatnik and Mr. Smith confer on the biggest headache of the year — crowded conditions.

Handling curriculum is no easy task, but Mr. Aiken will always do a splendid job.

"Oh what a beautiful morning . . ." Indeed, that's what Mr. Flink's smile says.

Faculty . . .

"Ladies first," says Mr. Rinehart as he holds the door for Miss Dibenardo and Miss Chapman.

... Keep us Coasting

After a busy day, Miss Goerz, our sponsor, takes time to enjoy her favorite hobby, cooking.

As characteristic of Open House, Helen Baca and her mother stop for a brief visit with Mrs. Perry.

"Look at the time!" shouts Rose Reed to Lauren Knubbe and Becky White. "Just five more minutes and we'll be dressing in the dark!"

SPORTS

Queens of the Court

"V is for Victory," says Lockport's cheerleaders: Dennie Johnson, Carol Djerf, Geri Damaska, Cathy Pike, Lorie Geddes, Shirley Gray, Faye Anderson, and Linda Zlogar, as they show off their snappy new uniforms.

Miss Evans, the popular and competent sponsor of the cheerleaders, greets Lorie Geddes, captain, and Shirley Gray, co-captain, with a smile and a good word.

INTRODUCING — Lockport's queens of the court — the basketball court that is. In the gym all eyes turned to these gals as they led the fans in peppy cheers. Likewise, on the football field they made a royal impression in their new maroon bermuda shorts, white sweaters, and white knee socks. This enthusiastic eight practiced under the capable guidance of their sponsor, Miss Evans. Even during those perilous fourth quarters, they kept the banner of school spirit and loyalty flying high to cheer the team on to victory.

Come on, boys! The cheerleaders want some action!

Porter Pep Crew

Sinker, Porters, sinker! — and the Porters chalk up two more points. The Pep Club is pleased with the team, and they are out to show it.

Neither wind, nor rain, nor sleet, nor snow kept the Lockport fans from cheering for the team. Foremost in the crowd, the Pep Club stood out with extra spirit and vigor. Always prepared, these loyal backers brought blankets and mittens to the football games, and for basketball it was sweatshirts and shakos.

Especially active this year, Pep Club introduced several new ideas, including maroon and white sweatshirts for members only and "make 'em yourself" shakos, which were sold to the whole student body.

Win or lose, the team's spirits stayed high due to the pepsters' loyal backing. With a "Go, team, go!" and a "Fight, team, fight!" they supported the boys in their victory fight.

They're here! They're here! The Pep Club sweatshirts have arrived at last!

Responsible for Pep Club's success are Vivian Long, president; Jackie Ward, treasurer; Barb Drury, co-secretary; Jeanne Rodeghero, vice-president; Connie Capista, co-secretary; and Miss Evans, sponsor.

"Hey! You can't take that ball away from me!" says Karen Abrams to Jackie Ward as Bonnie Brockway prepares a sneak attack.

Diane Weller and Janet Major discover the trouble with tennis as they struggle to make things fit.

These capable bowling secretaries and treasurers make the work easier for the sponsors. Cheryl Farmer, Sharon Southwick, Linda Stockbar, Sharon Johnson, Mary King, Janice Hanley, Pam Scriber, and Elizabeth King

GAA - Physical

Follow any peppy Lockport girl and you will invariably find yourself in the Girls' Athletic Association. Here, through participation in many sports, girls can gain experience in game play and practice good sportsmanship. Under the supervision of the sponsors, girls can become better acquainted with others and better skilled in sports.

GAA offers a wide variety of activities. Throughout the school year, volleyball, basketball, tennis, bowling, life saving, and golf are scheduled.

The GAA officers for 1961-62 are Rosemary McGinnis, treasurer; Joyce Cotter, president; Marian Scheuber, vice-president; and Linda Larsen, secretary.

Ready and willing to help at any time are the GAA sponsors, Mrs. Firlus, Mrs. Pickering, Miss Chapman, and Miss Olson.

Fitness and Fun

Tournaments are held for the champion teams of each class and the all-star teams in volleyball and basketball. Ten girls are chosen from the bowling leagues to compete with bowlers from all over the state in the GAA State Telegraphic Bowling Tournament. Through life saving classes offered in the spring, girls may earn both Junior and Senior Life Saving Badges.

Because of its tremendous popularity, GAA is one of the largest organizations at Lockport. It is equally enjoyed by all the classes and plays an important part in school life.

"Somebody help me!" Corliss Smith tries to get some assistance from Patsy Carr as they participate in their life-saving exercises.

"Lorie's all set, but where's the ball?" Lorie Geddes demonstrates golf to Merlene Gee.

"Hurry up and take the picture — these things are heavy!" The State Telegraphic Bowling team, Patti Lapikas, Judy L. Carlson, Joyce Cotter, Sharon Johnson, and Gail Torkelson.

Varsity Football

By means of a gigantic line, brilliant passing, and a speedy backfield our powerful Porters rolled up a record of 6 wins and 3 losses this year to boast of the best season seen at Lockport in many years.

Equaling last year's effort, the Porters mangled Evergreen Park 24-6 for their second win in two years against the Mustangs.

As Coach Bill Zimmer and Assistant Coaches Mel Deskin and Frank Blum prepared themselves for a glorious season, "old man weather" turned against them when the Porter Eleven fell to Joliet Catholic by a score of 6-7 on a mud-soaked field.

Coming back in their third game the undaunted Porter marauders crushed powerful Argo 13-7. After taking it on the chin at Kankakee, our gridiron heroes thrilled a cheering Homecoming crowd by duping lowly Blue Island 25-13.

Lockport in their next game played host to invading Joliet, and, in their most exciting game of the season, the Porters were edged 2-7. After bowing to the rugged Steelmen, our tremendous hustlers, in grandiose fashion, thrashed Thornton thoroughly by a score of 12-7 for the first time in LTHS' history.

In their remaining games Lockport's magnificent Porters toppled Thornridge and Bloom by scores of 20-14 and 26-7, respectively.

As a result of their team spirit, teamwork, and excellent coaching the Porters tied Kankakee for second place in the South Suburban Conference.

Advice from Coach Zimmer often proves invaluable.

Most Valuable Player

The 1961 gridiron squad posted Lockport's best season record since 1953 with 6-3-0. Not only the team as a whole demonstrated expert ability, but also many individuals were outstanding. The Porters produced its first all state footballman in Jim Goeke, the number one center in Illinois. Jim copped other honors by being elected to the all suburban and all conference squads. Halfback Chuck Clark was picked "The Most Valuable Player." Breaking the conference record, Chuck scored seventy points by eleven touchdowns and four extra points this season. Halfback Clark, guard Voss, quarterback Fulton, and end Kirk also made the all conference team.

Filled with the spirit of champions which showed itself throughout the season, the Frosh-Soph Porters achieved a 6 win, 2 loss, and 1 tie record. Coaches Don Seitzberg and Bill Jackson prepared their men well; as a result, our gridiron heroes trounced Evergreen Park, Joliet Catholic, Argo, and Kankakee in their first four games. Lockport played host to Blue Island and Joliet only to encounter their first two losses. Lockport then invaded powerful Thornton holding them to a standstill. Our hustlers then went on to thrash Thornridge and Bloom ending the season in a burst of glory. By their tremendous team effort the "Pigskins" tied Thornton for second place.

"Excellent team spirit and desire. Finest group to work with that I've had in football," were the remarks that Coaches Bill Connors and John Strobbe had for their undefeated South Suburban Conference champions. Starting out as a "green" team, our little Portermates went out to wallop Lincoln Way, Argo, Naperville, and Blue Island. Lockport then was slowed down to a scoreless game against powerful Joliet. Closing out the season by flailing Thornton, our Freshman squad deserves to be watched.

Since Cross Country was begun at Lockport three years ago, Coach Rogers and his harriers have progressed quickly.

Opening their third season with a tie against Reavis, our Porter harriers posted a 3 win, 9 loss, and 1 tie record. Undaunted after being edged by Morris, the Cross Country squad came back to trounce Argo. Then Kankakee dealt Lockport its second loss, but again Coach Rogers' scappy team came back to crack Carl Sandburg's formidable strength. Later Blue Island, Oaklawn, Joliet, and Thornton were able to down the Porters. Next Lockport's Cross Countrymen overwhelmed Thornridge. The Porter harriers then fell to Bloom and Morris.

To prove their increasing strength the harriers took fifth in a rough South Suburban Conference, and to further boost their season, our Porters placed twelfth in district in a field of twenty two.

At the crack of the starter's gun, Jerry Pekar, Jim Peterson, John Lund, and Dennis Jennings leap for the advantage.

Swimmers Sting Competitors

Constant practice enabled tankmen, Jim Landon and John Filipowicz, to shatter swimming records.

Swimming against some of the strongest teams in the state, the Porter tankmen posted a 2 win, 10 loss record. Although the swimmers lacked depth to win meets, individual honors were great. On the varsity squad senior Doug Carlson set a faster time for the 100 yd. backstroke, and junior Jim Peterson broke the record for the 160 yd. and 200 yd. individual medley.

On the frosh-soph team Jim Hemphill set new records for the 40 yd. backstroke and 80 yd. individual medley while Roy Fleet tied Andy Djerf's mark for the 40 yd. free style. To add to this accomplishment, the frosh-soph team posted a 6 win, 6 loss record.

Grapplers Pin

With a combination of brains, brawn, and Coach Zimmer's guidance, the 1961-62 Porter grapplers posted their best record, 8 wins and 3 losses, in many years. To further boost their season, the LTHS matmen took fourth in the SSL and second in the district meets. Elected by their teammates, the most valuable wrestlers were Jim Rumchak and Jerry Genge. Jim and Jerry, both seniors, have compiled outstanding victories during their tenure at Lockport.

Two other senior wrestlers who have added power to the LTHS wrestling team are Vernon Voss and Bill Rumchak. Voss, in his three years of varsity wrestling, has compiled a tremendous 67 wins, 7 losses and 2 ties record. In addition to these fine seasons, Voss has copped a first and second in District meets, two firsts in Sectional matches, and a second and fourth in State competition.

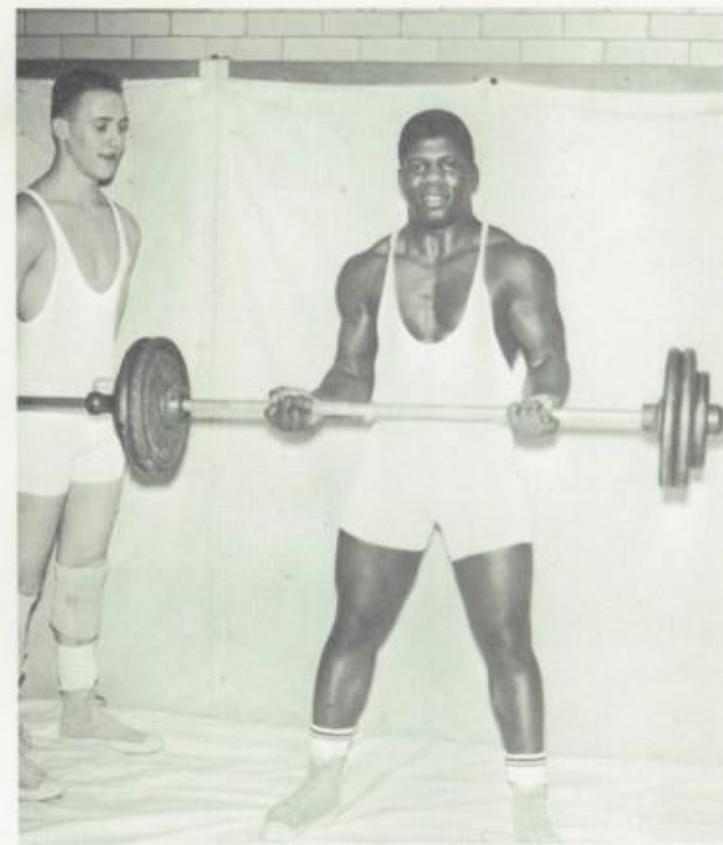

The LOCK staff would like to salute Coach Bill Zimmer and assistant Coach Mel Deskin for the outstanding job they have done at Lockport, and we hope they continue to bring wrestling laurels to Lockport for many years to come.

Cagers Capture 16-11

The Lockport Porters, guided by Mentor Bill Connors, found their own this year as they rolled up a 16-11 season. The hoopsters can contribute their success to a hustling defense, a sharp shooting offense, and Coach Connors' expert team handling.

Our spirited basketball quintet jumped off to four straight wins and it seemed that they were unbeatable until they fell to rugged Kankakee in a slow, tough game. Shaking off their one defeat the undaunted Porters went on to win the Naperville Holiday Tournament and to take fourth place in the Pontiac Tourney.

The remainder of the year had its ups and downs — but mostly it had its ups. When the final whistle blew in the last conference game with Bloom of Chicago Heights, the Porters held a respectable 7-7 conference record, good enough for fifth place in the SSL.

To end the year the powerful Porters started on the State Tournament trial at the Bloom Regional. After winning its first game against Peotone, the team lost to Rich by one point in the closing seconds of a hard fought game.

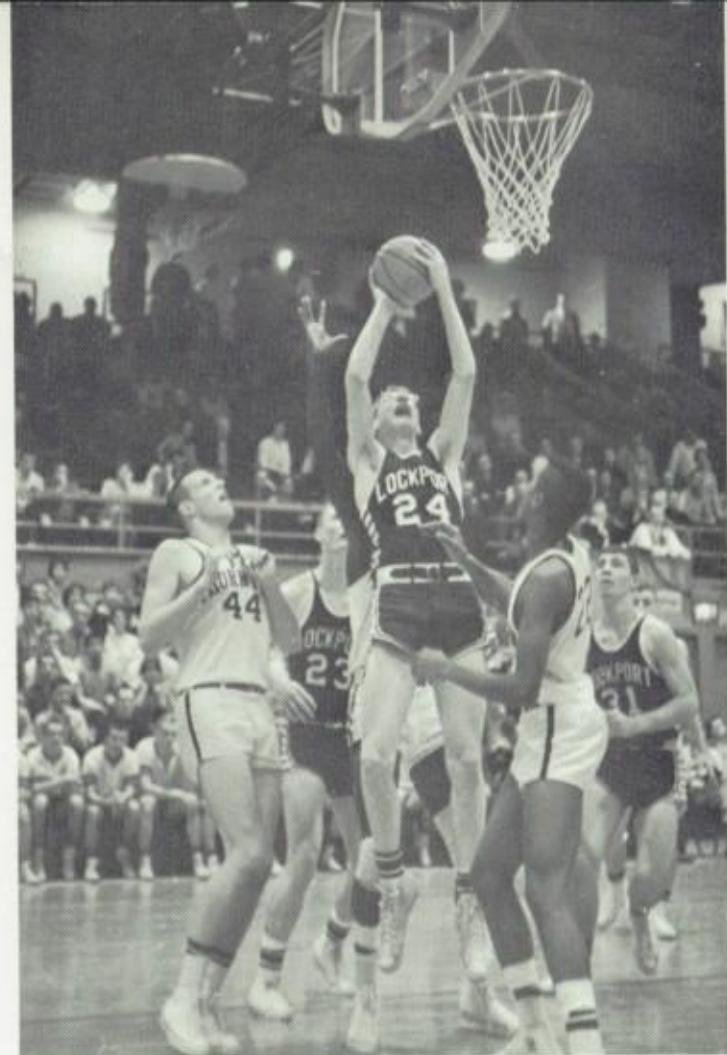

The 1961-62 basketball season will not soon be forgotten at LTHS because of the immense excitement our team provided for its fans and because of the unequalled sportsmanship our team displayed on the court.

Cindermen Build

Frosh-Soph coach, Ed Cisler, looks on as Gary Bond and Matt Autman display their baton passing skills to Rich Powers, Jim Santerelli, and Roy Fleet.

"Brilliant prospects for the future" is a good phrase to describe this years Frosh-Soph squad. Combining both track and field skills the portermites won four out of their seven meets. This record captured seventh place in the South Suburban Conference test.

Three school records were shattered as the Soph's displayed their potential to make varsity squad.

Fred Shepard prepares to launch a flying saucer in the discus.

High jumping Ken Kon, Lockport's answer to John Thomas, soars to new heights.

1962 proved to be a lean year for the Porter trackmen as they failed to win a single meet. One of the few bright spots of the season came when Doug Carlson set a new school record in the mile run.

To round out the year the never-say-die cindermen took fourth in the annual Will County track meet, seventh place in the South Suburban Conference encounter, and sixteenth in the District clash.

Head coach William Jackson and his assistant coaches, Edward Cisler and Bill Richardson, hope next year to give LTHS a winning season, and the LOCK wishes to offer their hope for a successful year.

Breaking tape in sophomore relay is Lockport's Stacy Miller.

To carry on LTHS' magnificent baseball tradition, the Porter diamond-men again brought fame and honor to Lockport. Although this was not the most powerful team in LTHS history, it did, however, make up for its power loss in hustle and determination. Every Lockport fan agreed that the Porter nine gave its all both on offense and defense.

For the fifth consecutive year Lockport won the District Tourney, first step in the State Tournament. After winning their first game in the regional by beating Oak Lawn, 5-4, the Porters lost to Lions of La Grange 9-10 in a slugfest.

When the final South Suburban Conference standings were released, the Porters ended up in record place with a 5-2 conference record.

"Come on Myron, be a hitter!" yells Coach Seitzberg, a familiar sight to LTHS baseball fans.

Surprise! For all you keyhole peekers, it's the boys' baseball locker room!

Hurlers Hit Headlines

Chuck Ballantine

Don Lemmon

Jim Goeke

These three pitchers provided much of Lockport's strength this season. Chuck Ballantine, in addition to having a 5-2 record, pitched a no-hitter against Argo. Jim Goeke (5-2) and Don Lemmon (1-2) also combined for a no-hitter against Aurora. Ballantine will return next year along with Ray Ryan who won one game this year.

Stars of Tomorrow

The Freshman and Sophomore Potermite squads donated a combined total of seven wins and eleven losses to LTHS posterity. Although both squads experienced their ups and downs, the boys will be back next year to boost the varsity squad in its quest for fame.

The LOCK extends congratulations to Sophomore Coach Tom Heggerty and Freshman Coach John Strobbe for a job well done and good wishes for the future.

Coach Ed Hill's varsity golf squad, composed this year of three juniors and four sophomores, compiled a record of seventeen wins, and five losses, and one tie. This proved to be the best won-lost record ever earned in the history of the LTHS Linksters.

In the District Tourney, first leg of the State Tournament, our Porters missed first place by only three strokes. To end the year the greensmen copped third place in the South Suburban League Tournament. The future of our LTHS hackers looks very bright because all the members of the squad will return next year to improve their outstanding record.

George Nordstrom hits a forehand drive as his partner Bill Ott looks on. These are two of the three seniors on the team.

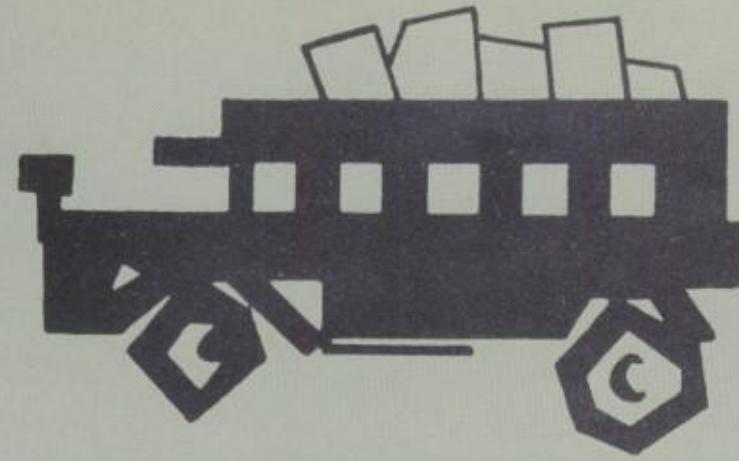

Twenty-two athletes answered the call, "Tennis anyone?" to make up one of the largest tennis squads in LTHS's history. Size wasn't everything, however, as the varsity bounced 0-11, and the frosh-soph followed with 1-10. The outlook is good as some underclassmen look promising and only three varsity members graduated.

Al Zanzola, a senior, serves to his opponent in a tight match.

ACTIVITIES AND AWARDS

After a difficult session, these delegates are ready to adjourn.

We will now take you on an inside view of our Student Council. Everything is the same except "You Are There." Doug Carlson and John Lund, Co-Presidents of the council, have just reminisced their year's projects: Homecoming, open house, the now traditional Twirl Twirl, Student Council campaign week, the Christmas mail box, and the spring dance, Cupid's Capers. As we continue to listen, we discover that our Student Council has fulfilled its purpose — to discover the students' wishes and to carry them out.

Is There a

Mr. Pryor says to Sandy Margentina that the three steps to success are cents, service, and the Student Council.

Athletes and Old Lace

Light hearts keep everyone dancing until the last echos of music had died away.

In the elegant setting of the Chantilly Room of D'Amico's 214, training rules were temporarily forgotten when the Letterman, coaches, and their dates attended the First Annual L Club Dinner-Dance. This gala affair, held on the 13th of April, began with a delicious dinner, followed by dancing to the music of Bill Carnegie and his orchestra.

The balcony overlooking the patio and fountain was a popular spot for those couples who were not dancing. In fact, the pennies which rained down put those around the fountain in real danger. All these wishes must certainly have been granted, because it was one of the most enjoyed occasions of the year.

"What do you want to be when you grow up? Would you like to become a farmer? Well, if you do, join the Future Farmers and learn more about the farming profession!"

This year the FFA took part in many different activities. They attended conventions, livestock shows, and various contests throughout the state. In order to raise money they held a paper drive and several car washes.

Under the excellent leadership of Mr. Lawrence, the FFA sponsor, the boys will eventually make use of all the knowledge that they receive in FFA.

The FFA officers, Fred Shepherd, Richard Maas, Dan LeGrand, Ron Bromberk, Henry Meader, Mr. Lawrence, sponsor, and Dave Smrekar proudly display their emblem.

Mrs. Shoop and her five officers, Sandy Margentina, president; Richard Schultz, vice-president; Marianne Legan, secretary; Bev Startz, treasurer; and Joyce Cotter, historian; are the main wheels behind the well planned meetings of the Future Teachers.

"Anything worth doing is worth doing well." This motto holds true for the Future Teachers at LTHS as they prepare for their career in teaching.

The FTA is an informative organization that advises its members about the different phases in teaching. This is done at meetings with different speakers, panels, films, and the helpful hand of Mrs. Shoop, the FTA sponsor.

Last spring the Junior and Senior members tried their hand at cadet teaching in the local grade schools. This experience gave them an opportunity to study the different techniques of teaching.

Therefore, the FTA's motto is not just a few words, but an idea that the club tries to live up to.

Future Teachers

Do secret codes arouse your interest and bring out the adventure in you? The Future Business Leaders of America (written out in shorthand below) anticipate this adventure as they prepare for their career in business.

For the past few years the FBLA's main project has been the compiling and revising of the Porter Key, a handbook prepared for the benefit of the students and teachers. It contains information on the writing of all formal writing and punctuation.

Helpful topics such as telephone technique, correct grooming on the job, and interviews for employment were all a part of the FBLA's meetings. Films, panels, and lectures pertaining to these subjects were also given.

If enthusiasm is any indication of success, these future business leaders are sure to travel far.

"Hurry, here come some more!" says Sharon Osman to Kay Stein, Karen Davito, and Gayle Meyer, as they all work diligently in the coat check.

Lauren Knubbe, Secretary, and Janet Reed, Vice-president, look surprised as Janet Breitweiser, Treasurer, Julie Venckus, President, Sharon DePra, Corresponding Secretary, and Mrs. Habenicht, the FNA sponsor, catch them digging into the candy dish.

They Lend a

Got a cold or some kind of ailment? Well, if you do, take a trip up to the health room where Mrs. Habenicht, the Future Nurses' sponsor, with the help of the FNA, maintains the room through sickness and health.

Besides keeping the health room, the FNA has a coat check at home basketball games, a Mother-Daughter Tea, a Christmas Party where the Seniors get their pins, and a skating party — all packed with fun.

The Future Nurses' meetings are both educational and profitable. Many times movies concerning hospital functions are shown; other times a doctor or nurse from a hospital speaks on responsibilities to their profession.

This organization is profitable for all, because you never know when one of the Future Nurses might help you in the future.

Carefully filling Red Cross boxes are: Bonnie Fleming, Carol Affrunti, Marsha Francis, and Lynette Braun.

Helping Hand

The Junior Red Cross is not all bandages and splints. The members, elected from each homeroom, initiated many worthwhile projects during the year. They provided programs at each home football game, and kept a scrapbook of many memorable events. They also sent money to an unfortunate high school foreign exchange student, prepared nut cups for the general wards of the hospitals, and sent care packages overseas. These packages contained soap, crayons, combs, and pencils donated by the different classes.

A membership drive was held at the beginning of the year to promote interest in the student body. After a busy week of recruiting the organization was under way.

A busy group of LTHS students who are trained to give "reel" assistance to teachers are the Projectionist Club members.

This organization under the direction of Mr. Paul Jorgenson, Industrial Arts instructor, has their headquarters in Room 207. During the day there are always members of the club on duty ready to give assistance wherever needed. Setting up, taking down, and operating projectors are the main functions of the Projectionists.

Filmstrips are used in almost every subject, so the service these students render is a vital one, and is much appreciated.

"Heh! What should I say fellows," says Donald O'Connor, treasurer, to Steve Potter, president, and John Hallis, vice-president.

Rarin' to go are these projectionist fellows.

Your Move

Chess, one of the oldest games in the world, was introduced at Lockport under the sponsorship of Mr. Beseman. The club, having a membership of about fifteen persons, meets in the school library twice a month. Most of the members are boys, but once in a while a girl isn't afraid to pit her mind against theirs. So, if you like a good "thinking" game, join the Chess Club.

"What's that you said?" asks Linda Sandstrom to Paul Gard as Martha Svendsen and Dave Morrison look on.

"Now let me see," thinks President Chuck Clark, "how can I persuade the boys to vote my way?"

"I don't mind these last minute notices, but how do I conduct a meeting?" vice-president Jim Goeke contemplates mournfully.

"How did her telephone number get into the minutes?" says secretary Nick Friend.

"5, 6 — Hum — maybe I can catch the 5:15 train if I hurry," says treasurer Bill Rumchak.

THEY HAVE TO BE TOP-FLIGHT OR THEY CAN'T BE MEMBERS OF THE LETTERMAN'S CLUB

Earning a letter is only the key —

FIRST ROW: Jeanne Bardowski, Margie Janosz, Yvonne Triplett, Barbara Brandau, Lois Ward.

Think you've got some hidden talent for dramatics? Why not join the Forensic Speech Organization, and find out? You may discover that you aren't exactly Academy Award material, but your efforts may pay off in the end.

The members use their talents in a variety of ways. Some act in the school plays, others prefer public speaking, and still others speak over the radio. At the bi-weekly meetings, Mrs. Richardson and Mr. Tipler, sponsors, devote much of their time to helping the members with their present activity.

The organization was proud of the member who placed first in the American Legion Oratorical Contest held at Manhattan on December tenth. As a result, many more participated in the contest held at Lockport.

Who knows, someday the efforts of the members may pay off when one of them receives an Oscar.

The combination of meaningful gestures and a powerful speech brought Becky White first place in the American Legion Oratorical contest.

Hollywood Bound

"That's right, Paul, use your hands more," says Miss Johnson, student teacher, to Paul Gard.

Dan LeGrand and Rich Schultz are determined to "hit that high note" as they practice for their trip to McCormick Place.

M is for music, maestro, Meints, and Madrigals ... Lockport's lively singers that delighted audiences wherever they went.

Hear ye! Hear ye! And everyone heard . . . heard the LTHS chorus giving voice to lovely Christmas Carols. Young and old heard the wonderful Christmas Story told through music.

The Concordia College Choir brought sparkle to January when it presented a superb concert to an entranced audience. The concert was so well presented that it gave birth to a new appreciation of music.

The route to McCormick Place in Chicago was the path of honor for Dan LeGrand and Richard Schultz, for they appeared there as two of the two hundred best high school vocalists in Illinois. Long after they have left Lockport to sing along with someone else, they will remember their joy and pride in achieving this wonderful goal.

Sing Along

Singing along with their director, the choristers transported a rapt audience to the "bonny banks of Scotland" when they put on the Broadway musical "Brigadoon." As the highlight of the year, it drew a large crowd and much acclamation.

We all sing the praises of Mr. Meints and his "sing along gang." You may think that this is the end . . . well, it isn't. Sing on Lockporters, we're right along with you!

with Meints

Ours for a Song

"Try singing it like this . . ." Mr. Meints offers many helpful suggestions to "make the good better."

"Nothing made has got a shade on . . ." Lockport's All-State singers. Left to right: Dan LeGrand, Jamie LaTour, Richard Schultz, and Sandy Smith.

Ready and set to go are band officers Carolyn Schmitz, treasurer; Jean Marietta, freshman representative; Rich Powers, sophomore representative; Sandy Margentina, secretary; Gary Geissler, vice-president; and Rich Czuchra, president.

"Strike up the band," the pep band that is.

On to Mason City

"How do you think this march will sound?" asks Mr. Caneva, director, of Mr. Tatroe, assistant director.

These band boosters, Mr. Blogg, Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Drost, Mr. Herron, and Dr. Albers, are very proud that our band was chosen to go to Mason City.

Lend Me

We planned, we packed, we played, and we returned a very proud band. The good tidings finally arrived that the Lockport Township High School Band had been chosen to represent the state of Illinois at the "Music Man" festival at Mason City, Iowa. The members of the band worked like beavers preparing themselves for this nation-wide marching contest.

The senior band members will have fond memories of their last year because many wonderful things happened during 1961-1962. They began by capturing first place and top honors in the Tournament of Music at Riverview Amusement Park.

On March 4th, the band entertained the public at their 29th annual spring concert, "On to Mason City."

an Ear

January 27th brought the band students and parents together for their band banquet, "Going Our Way." Everyone attending was inspired by the wonderful speech delivered by F. L. McAllister. Four senior band members reminisced over their years in the band and told of many fond memories.

To be sure, it would be mighty quiet around Lockport without the Porter band. Whether the concert band is entertaining the public, the pep band and orchestra are playing for the school activities, or the marching band is participating in the town parades and football shows, they always put their best foot forward!

"I'll go home with Bonnie Jean," sings the bridegroom, Charlie Dalrumple.

Brigadoon

At the fair Meg Brockie tries to sell the "finest cream that ever came out of a cow."

"Don't you see, Jeff? . . ." Tommy vainly attempts to explain his feelings toward Fiona.

In the highlands, the bonnie, bonnie highlands, there is the village of Brigadoon. Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas, two Americans on a hunting expedition, soon discover that this is no ordinary village. Brigadoon is not on the map; the people wear strange clothes; no Brigadoon villager ever heard of our modern conveniences; and the dates in the Maclarens family Bible are not of the present century.

Brigadoon is the result of a miracle. Mr. Forsythe, "whose one desire and ambition was to protect the folk of his parish from the evil influences of the witches of the outside world," prayed to God for this phenomenon. Someone of the outside world can live in Brigadoon provided that he is in love with one of the villagers and believes in the miracle.

This highly successful musical was presented by the choral department under the direction of Mr. Mientis and Charlene Giardina, student director, on April 6, 1962.

Cast:

Tommy Albright	Richard Schultz
Jeff Douglas	Mike Morse
Fiona Maclareen	Suzanne Knarr
Andrew Maclareen	Charles Clark
Harry Beaton	Robert Zitzke
Charlie Dalrumple	Dennis Bratton
Jean Maclareen	Susan Jachinski
Meg Brockie	Sandra Smith
Mr. Lundie	Mike McGroarty
Jane Ashton	Peggy Ennis
Archie Beaton	Melvin Rock
Angus MacGuffie	Bob Sramek
Sandy Dean	Earl Hassert
Angus MacGregor	Dan LeGrand
Frank	Frank Treseder

Mr. Lundie relates the tale of the miracle to his attentive listeners, Fiona, Tommy, and Jeff.

Jeff drowsily listens to Meg tell of her plan to catch a man.

"Eating more now but enjoying it less?" Cheryl Farmer is skeptical of Bob Majetic's sudden pains, but Mariellen Resler doesn't seem to notice.

Anything would be an improvement! Carol Pratt and Kathy Bennett apply makeup to Peggy Ennis and Cheryl Farmer before the opening night.

"Don't just stand there — get me a crow-bar or something!" Sam Hillock sends a frantic SOS to Cheryl Farmer, Peggy Ennis, and Connie Hammond.

"The Great Big Doorstep"

"It's just like dress rehearsal except that the seats are filled!" Cheryl Farmer assures the cast.

The curtain opened to a Southern drawl and the strum of a guitar on November 16 and 17 when the Juniors presented their play, "The Great Big Doorstep." This rollicking comedy was complete with a shady character, a stabbing, and even bouncing checks.

It all started when a beautiful doorstep floated down the Mississippi to the Crochet's miserable home. After this stroke of fortune, Mr. Crochet, a "drainage expert" or ditchdigger, decided to find a house for his family equal to their doorstep. The following hour was filled with his hilarious attempts to get a house and the adventures of his unusual family.

The entire audience was laughing long after the curtain closed on this delightful play of rags to riches. The cast under the direction of Rena Grepares, student director, with Mrs. Richardson and Mr. Tipler as faculty advisers, was justly proud of a fine performance.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast." Kathy Bergseth soothes Carl Michaelsen and Sue Latocha.

"And I had to tell her that that (Nancy Leinen) was my only sister!" says George Nordstrom to Karen Behling and Paul Gard.

Little bit of powder, little bit of paint makes the Senior cast look like what it ain't.

"Seventeen"

Oh, the trials of young love! The Seniors chose a very appropriate subject when they presented "Seventeen." The play, taken from Booth Tarkington's novel, portrays the problems and pains in the life of a seventeen-year-old boy.

With the arrival of Lola, a southern beauty, the ordinary life of Willie Baxter was turned upside-down. His only ambition in life became winning her heart, and he would let nothing stand in his way. Even the lack of a tuxedo was surmountable when he made up his mind. Although he tried his best, his charms were far surpassed by those of a college man with a car, and Willie returned to earth with a thud.

As last year, the class of '62 scored a great success and were happy with the results. The play was directed by Mr. Tipler, Miss Johnson, a student teacher, and Joyce Cotter, the student director. Everyone involved was proud of the production and had the time of his life in the process.

Garvey Thomas escorts George Nordstrom who is modeling the latest Paris fashions.

Anne Murrie, Carolyn Schmitz, and Rosemary McGinnis are eagerly waiting to "peddle their papers" as they receive them from Rachael Grant.

Jeanne Rodeghero, Editor-in-Chief, and Mr. Ennis, sponsor, are engrossed in their finished product.

"Times" Goes

When's my deadline? . . . Where's my article? . . . What should we use for a headline? . . . Will we ever finish in time?

These are some haunting phrases which will bring back memories to the eager "Times" staff members. With the help of Mr. Ennis, "Times" sponsor, and all the members of the staff, the monthly papers were a big success.

The paper's out and Cheri Bockholdt, Assistant Business Manager, Bob Kryzak, Photographer, and Sharon Johnson, Typing Editor, are relaxing until the editing of the next issue begins.

During a busy day at school, Judy Wilking takes time to sell a "Times" subscription to Merlene Gee.

"Who says it doesn't pay to advertise?" says Ron Miller, Advertising Manager, to Barb Drury, Business Manager.

Marching on

The "Halloween Hop," which took place on October twenty-eight, was the "Times" main project. That night the gym was haunted by ghostly spirits that gathered about a huge pumpkin scarecrow.

Now it's all in the past; deadlines were met . . . articles were found . . . headlines were thought of . . . and everything was finished on time.

BUSINESS STAFF: FIRST ROW: Linda Larsen, Melanie Berta, Donna Needham, Gail Stockbar, Anne Murrie, Jan Major, Carolyn Schmitz, Mariellen Resler, Donna Lif. ## Lock-Depot for Year's Activities

"This picture looks very interesting. I wonder what on earth it is?" murmurs Mr. Sampson to himself.

"Mmmm, I like those figures. We've sold a record-breaking number of LOCKS this year!" George Nordstrom and Barb Drury business managers.

Guess who's been elected to return the pop bottles — the senior class editors, Jeanne Rodeghero and Marian Scheuber.

LOCK

"Which looks better, the pole or me?" says Joe Lawson, sports editor, to Jackie Ward, photography editor.

LOCK co-editors, Lorie Geddes and Merlene Gee, take time out from their busy schedules to look at some of the latest fashions.

Typing editor, Judy Topolski, and copy editors, Kathy Bergseth and Sandy Smith, smile with approval as they check copy.

Doing a little handiwork between assignments are assistant editors, Jane Harris and Claire Beavon.

Ticket to Memories

Who is always on the move, looking hopefully to the future? Why the LOCK staff, of course. Each year this group sells its priceless ticket to the memories of the past school year.

With much effort the editorial staff takes pictures, plans layouts, and thinks of clever captions, copy, and running heads. Serving as the depot, the LOCK room is the center of this ever busy system. After school, as well as on Saturdays, this room buzzes with the commotion of workers trying to get their assignments finished.

In charge of financial affairs is the business staff, who also transports the yearbook to the students. Because the LOCK staff pays the difference on the yearbooks, money must be raised by sponsoring dances after home games and the special Homecoming Dance.

The conductor of this depot is the ready, willing, and able sponsor, Mr. Sampson. Both he and the staff members devote much time and patience to produce a satisfactory yearbook. Upon finishing a job, the staff may be commended for a job well done.

Learners of Today . . .

Freshmen Honor Guards Mike Murawski and Connie Beavon lead the procession of nervous inductees.

The sophomore probationary members relax for a moment after recovering from the initial shock of being chosen. SEATED: Judy Major, Suzanne Wood, Dave Bier, Polly Jerabek; STANDING: Anita Miranda, Bill Drost, Shirley Gray, Ronald Hanna.

"Mom, I made it!" This was the excited response of the deserving students who received this announcement in the mail:

The Faculty of Lockport Township High School has chosen you to become a member of the James McKinnon Smith Chapter of the National Honor Society.
 The Induction Ceremony will be held on March 20, 1962 at 2:00 P.M.
 Your parents are invited to attend the ceremony and the reception which follows.

Leaders of Tomorrow

Impressive? Sure, but for eighteen seniors, thirty-two juniors, and eight sophomores, it was quite a task to keep the news from their friends until that big day.

The active chapter watched the new inductees with pleasant memories of their own induction. Thinking of the past year brought visions of both work and fun. Now, at the end of a successful year, the members could be proud of their accomplishments. The year's project had been a success; the chapter had helped the PTA and other adult organizations that were affiliated with the school; the school referendum had passed; PTA attendance had risen. The active members had indeed displayed their "SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP, CHARACTER, and SERVICE" for which they had been honored. Each active member could truthfully say that he had fulfilled his pledge to the National Honor Society — "striving in every way to make its ideals those of my school and of my life."

"Your FIFTH helping, Joe?" inquires Marianne Legan at the reception in the cafeteria after the induction ceremony.

"A job well done," replies Mrs. Mitzit to the NHS officers as they start for home. Jim Goeke, president; Charlene Giardina, secretary; Mrs. Mitzit, sponsor; Doug Carlson, vice-president; Richard Schultz, treasurer.

Many hands made work easy.

These girls got a big kick out

The Juniors wanted a Lulu of a Victory, and a Lulu of a Victory they got with 3rd place.

A group of boys eagerly waited for Jim Malloy to strike the initial blow.

Homecoming

Floats, parade, queen, dance, victory — all these combined to make the Homecoming of 1961 a great success. As the clock tolled 2 p.m., on Friday, October 13th, students, faculty, returning alumni, and townspeople gathered to view the annual parade.

An old battered car, representing Blue Island, was a new addition to the parade this year. At the pep assembly following the parade, LTHS students were encouraged to take a whack at the car with a sledge hammer to "Bash Blue Island In."

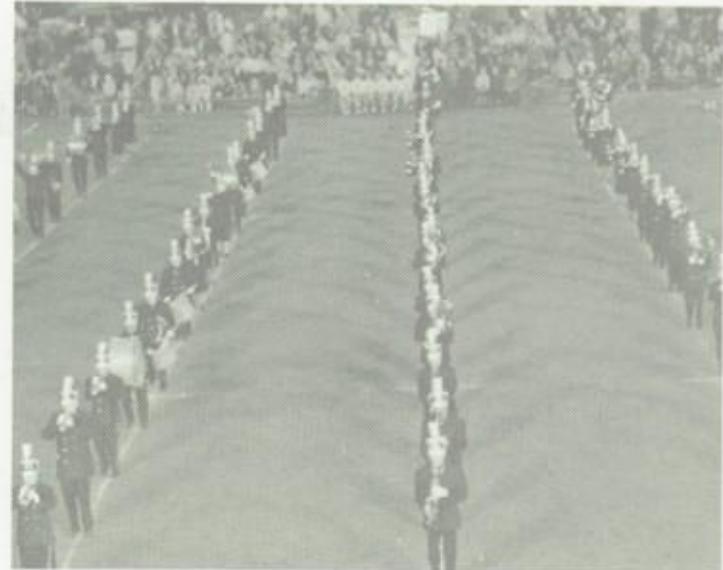

of imitating the boys.

1961

Once again the Senior Class produced the winning float, "We're Cruis'en to Bruise'em," while the FBLA's walking unit literally walked away with, "We're the Type to Win."

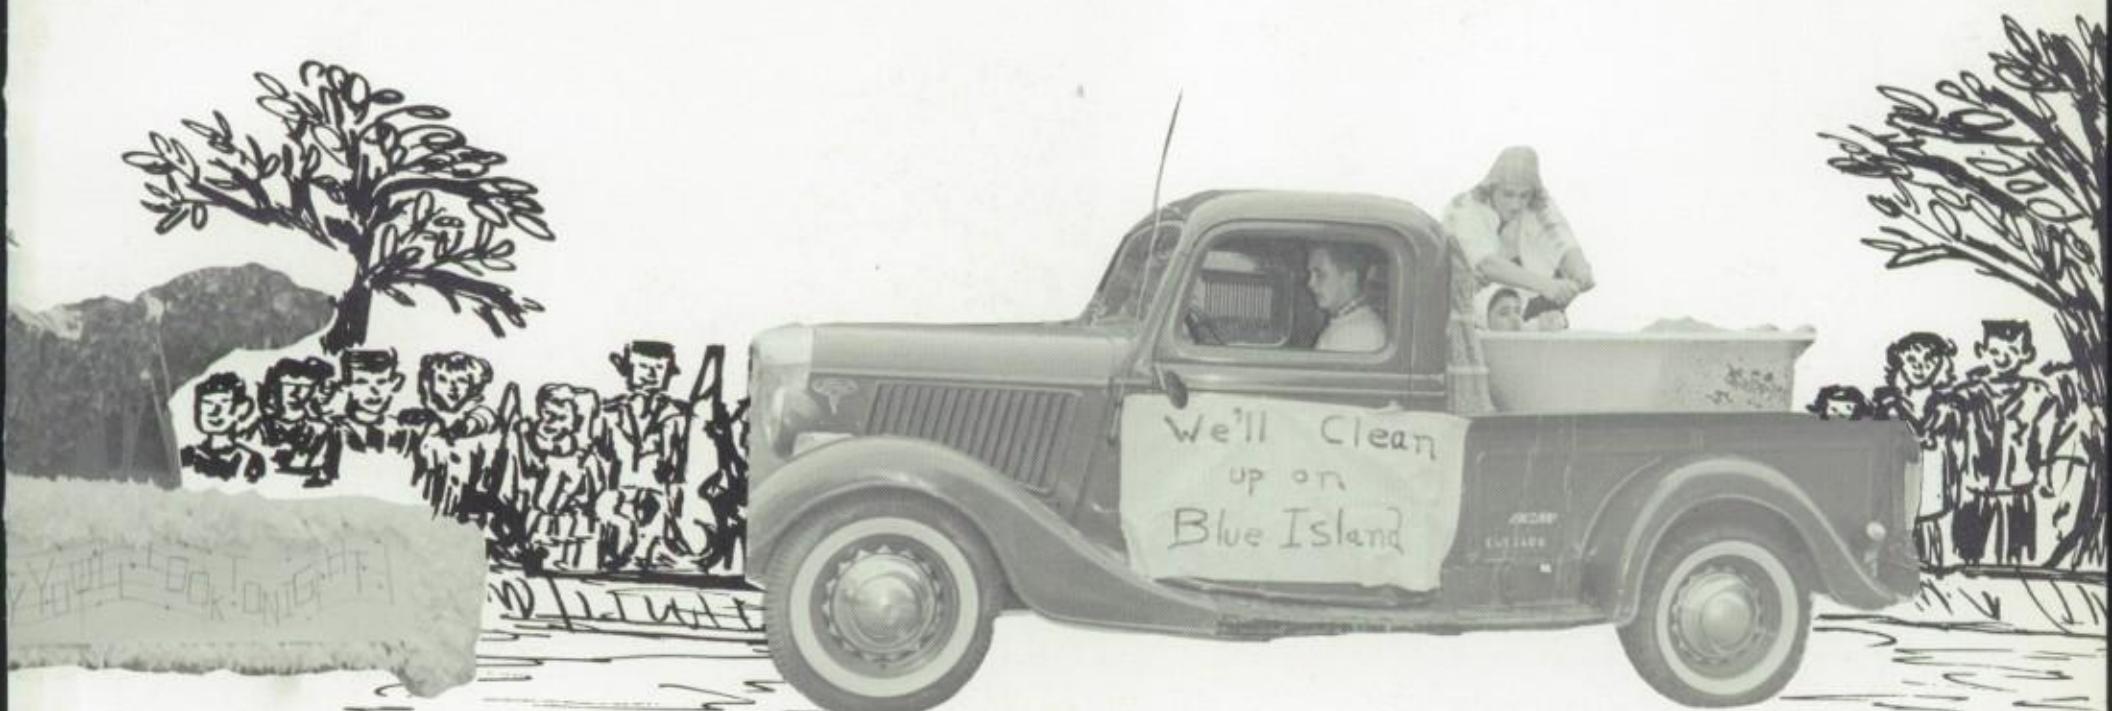

To climax the day the Porters downed the Blue Island Cardinals 25 to 13. This contributed to making the 1961 Homecoming the best ever.

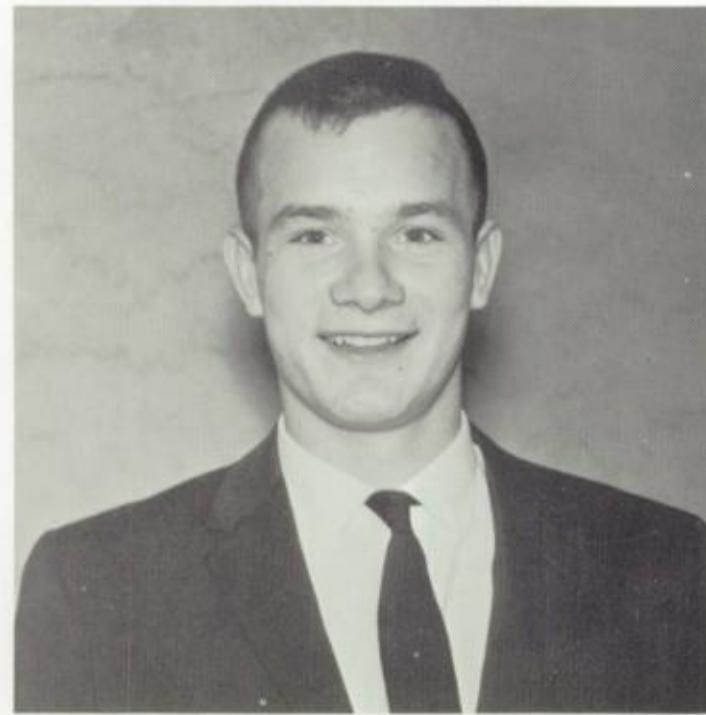

As usual, the Lockport High School Band presented an enjoyable show.

Enthusiastic students plus hard work equaled another success for the Seniors.

King
Ken
Kirk

Queen
Vivian
Long

The Queen's court: Senior attendant, Sandy Peterman and her escort, Don Carlson; Junior attendant, Ginger Couch and her escort, Benny Kobe; Sophomore attendant, Beverlee Partak and her escort, Jerry Anderson; Freshman attendant, Kathy Popovich and her escort, Ron Brown.

"Gee, Ken," whispers Viv, "can this really be true? It's all so wonderfull!"

This year the Homecoming halftime festivities were in the capable hands of the Letterman's Club. After the enthusiastic crowd had observed the floats as they circled the field, the Homecoming Queen, Vivian Long, was presented with two dozen roses, and her attendants were introduced and given nosegays.

The LTHS gym, the scene for the Victory Dance, was cleverly transformed into a football game. This was achieved by the effect of the footballs, football players, and cheerleaders. Nothing could have been more appropriate for a Victory Dance.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Queen Vivian and King Ken. After presenting the court and their escorts, the royal couple then waltzed to the special coronation dance. The Chessmen Band provided the music for the evening's entertainment.

GO-GO-fight-fight
WIN! TEAM! WIN!

Let's see. If I put this here and this there, I ought to have an arm.

Linda Larsen is a little doubtful that Marsha Schulz will hit the nail.

Wintertime Dreamland

"Whoever thought of putting letters on Christmas trees, anyway!" mumbles Randy Thomas to Jean Marietta.

King Fred Mumaugh and Queen Sandy Margentina smile happily as they reign over the Christmas Dance.

The happy expressions on these students faces show the enjoyment "Wintertime Dreamland" provided.

For several weeks before Christmas, the Lockport Township High School Music Department worked diligently on plans for their annual Christmas dance, "Wintertime Dreamland." Finally, on the evening of December 26th, the gym was transformed into a wonderland of snow and Christmas trees. The soft music of Gene Victor's Orchestra created a dreamy holiday atmosphere.

A highlight of the evening was the crowning of the king and queen. After being crowned, the couple lead the grand march through the gayly decorated gym.

All too soon the evening came to an end, but those who attended the dance will always keep the many memories of "Wintertime Dreamland."

Al Zanzola, Nina Anzzolin, Julie Venckus, and Jim Ludwig are hoping for nice presents from Santa.

Cupid's Caper

On the evening of February 17, 1962, it was evident that Cupid had found a way to many students' hearts. Shown on the students' faces were expressions of ecstasy, only Cupid could have sent. Walking down to the cafeteria the couples passed under an immense white heart into a wonderland of hearts and cupids.

The cafeteria was filled with enchanting melodies from the Don Adams Orchestra. A favorite spot for many fatigued and famished dancers was the small cafe where the dancers could be refreshed.

Climaxing the evening was the coronation of the king and queen. After a flurry of excitement and pleasure the royal couple danced to the strains of the Coronation Dance.

Because of the Student Council's hard work, "Cupid's Caper" was a sweetheart of a dance.

"Well, why don't we go together to the White Fence Farm?" says Dennis Meisinger and his date, Judy Kravich, to Barb Johnson and Melvin Rock.

"And now may we have a few words from Queen Barb Drury and King Steve Potter?" asks the Student Council co-presidents.

"No, you need this paper in that spot!" says Kathy Sharp to Bob Morton and Tom Pinn.

One can tell by these couples that Cupid was busy at this dance.

8:30 — Pre-prom parties surely start the night off right, especially when they are outside and in the atmosphere of Japanese lanterns.

9:15 — "There goes Ray's allowance!" Ray Ryan, Janis Beshears, Carol Djerf, Chuck Ballantine.

10:10 — "We'll be by at 6:00 A.M. for the picnic tomorrow. You better wake up." Mr. and Mrs. Stroble, Mr. and Mrs. Crone.

11:20 — "But, George, what would you do with a 'Twinkle Tree' in your bedroom?" Carolyn Schmitz, Joe Lawson, Judy Topolski, George Nordstrom

A NIGHT IN

TO THE SENIORS

This lovely night soon will end,
And with it lovely thoughts we'll send,
For with it ends our carefree ways,
Fond memories of High School days,
And as we say "Good-bye" tonight,
We feel "Good-bye" is not quite right,
We're very glad to know you,
We'll miss you when you're gone

And to you, the Class of '62,
We dedicate our Prom.

Mr. Sterling happily accepts a gift from Dr. Blatnik in behalf of the Board for his 40 years of dedicated service to the teaching profession.

The DAR award, based on leadership, service, dependability, and patriotism, is presented to Nina Anzzolin by Mr. Flink.

LTHS Acknowledges Her

Mrs. Lorenzen, past-president of Woman's Club, presents music camp scholarships to talented young Dennis Bratton and Gary Brainard.

Barb Drury, winner of the Home Economics award, displays one of her many talents in this field.

Beverly Startz smilingly accepts, from the Woman's Club president, Mrs. Schmitz, a scholarship to be used for her college education.

The surprised, but smiling, faces of Lorie Geddes and Doug Carlson, show their appreciation of having received the American Legion Awards.

Outstanding Students

Dennis Meisinger proves the adage that hard work pays off by winning two scholarships.

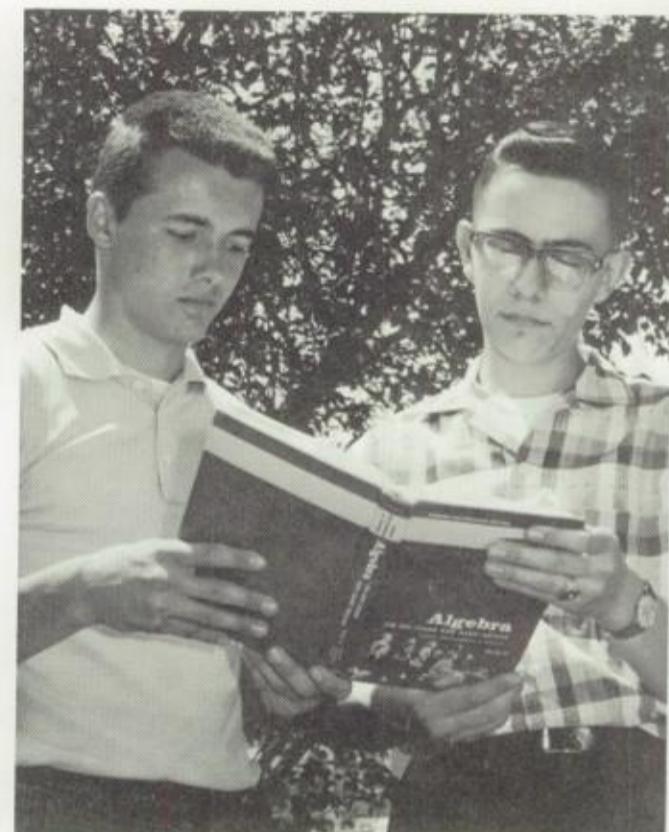

The American Legion Post of Lockport proudly presents an Illinois flag to Ernest Caneva, director of the LTHS band.

Mr. Lawrence presents to Ronald Bromberek the DeKalb Agricultural Award for doing outstanding work in the field of agriculture.

Dennis Meisinger, valedictorian of the class of 1962, proudly accepts his citation from Doctor Blatnik.

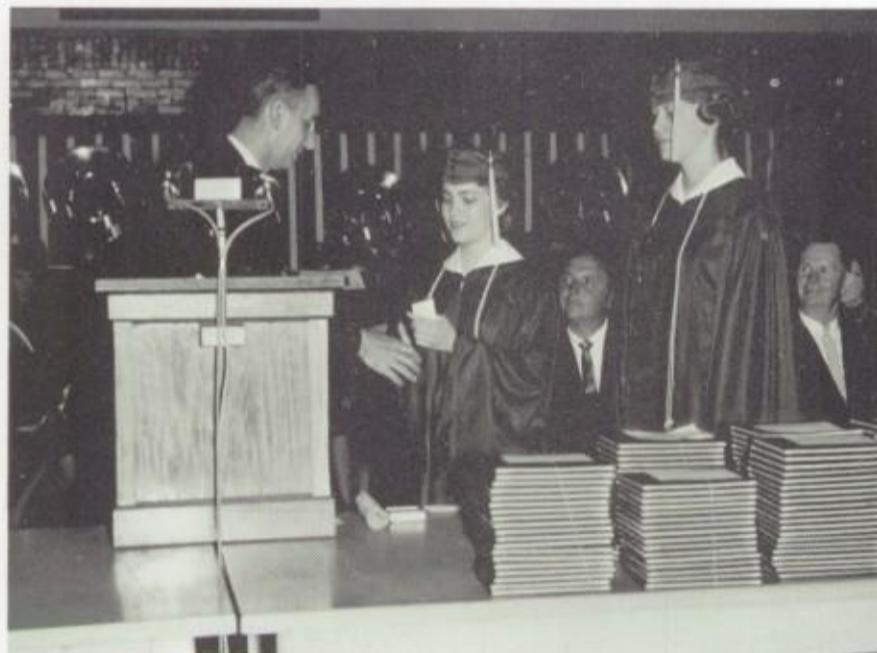

"Exactly what time is it?" inquires Doug Carlson, graduation speaker, of the class of 1962.

Graduation

OUR CREED

Realizing our responsibilities as American citizens, we shall strive to strengthen and preserve our democracy. We shall use our knowledge and judgment to make America a worthy example for all the world to follow. We shall try to be unselfish and understanding in our relationships with other men and nations. Thus, by contributing to the ideal of world peace and brotherhood, may we, the class of 1962, make the best use of the training and guidance received at Lockport Township High School.

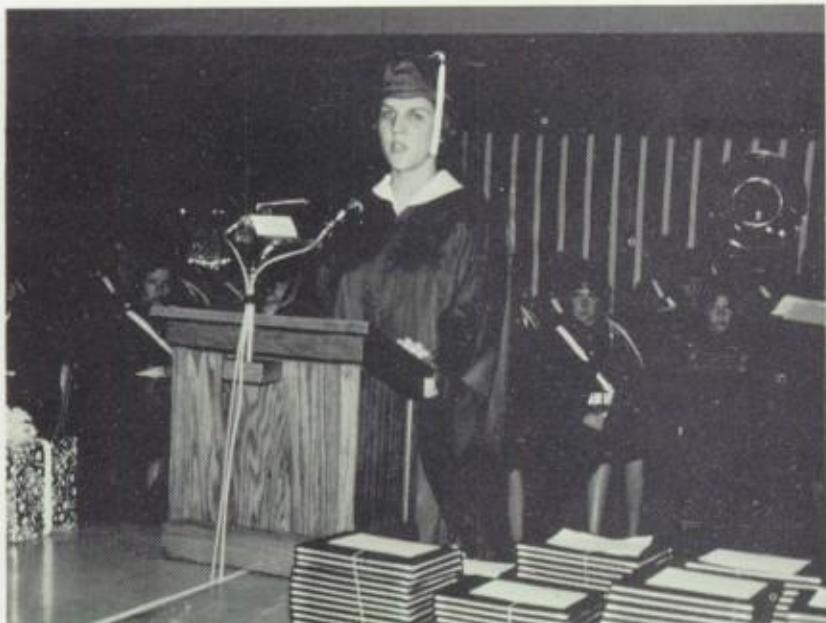

Nina Anzzolin and Marianne Legan happily receive the title of salutatorian for many years of hard work.

Robert Zitzke, president of the senior class, presents Mr. Lawrence with a token of appreciation from the class of 1962.

All too soon it was time to hand back the caps and gowns.

Karen Behling, student graduation speaker, sincerely tells the senior class that it is time to think of the future.

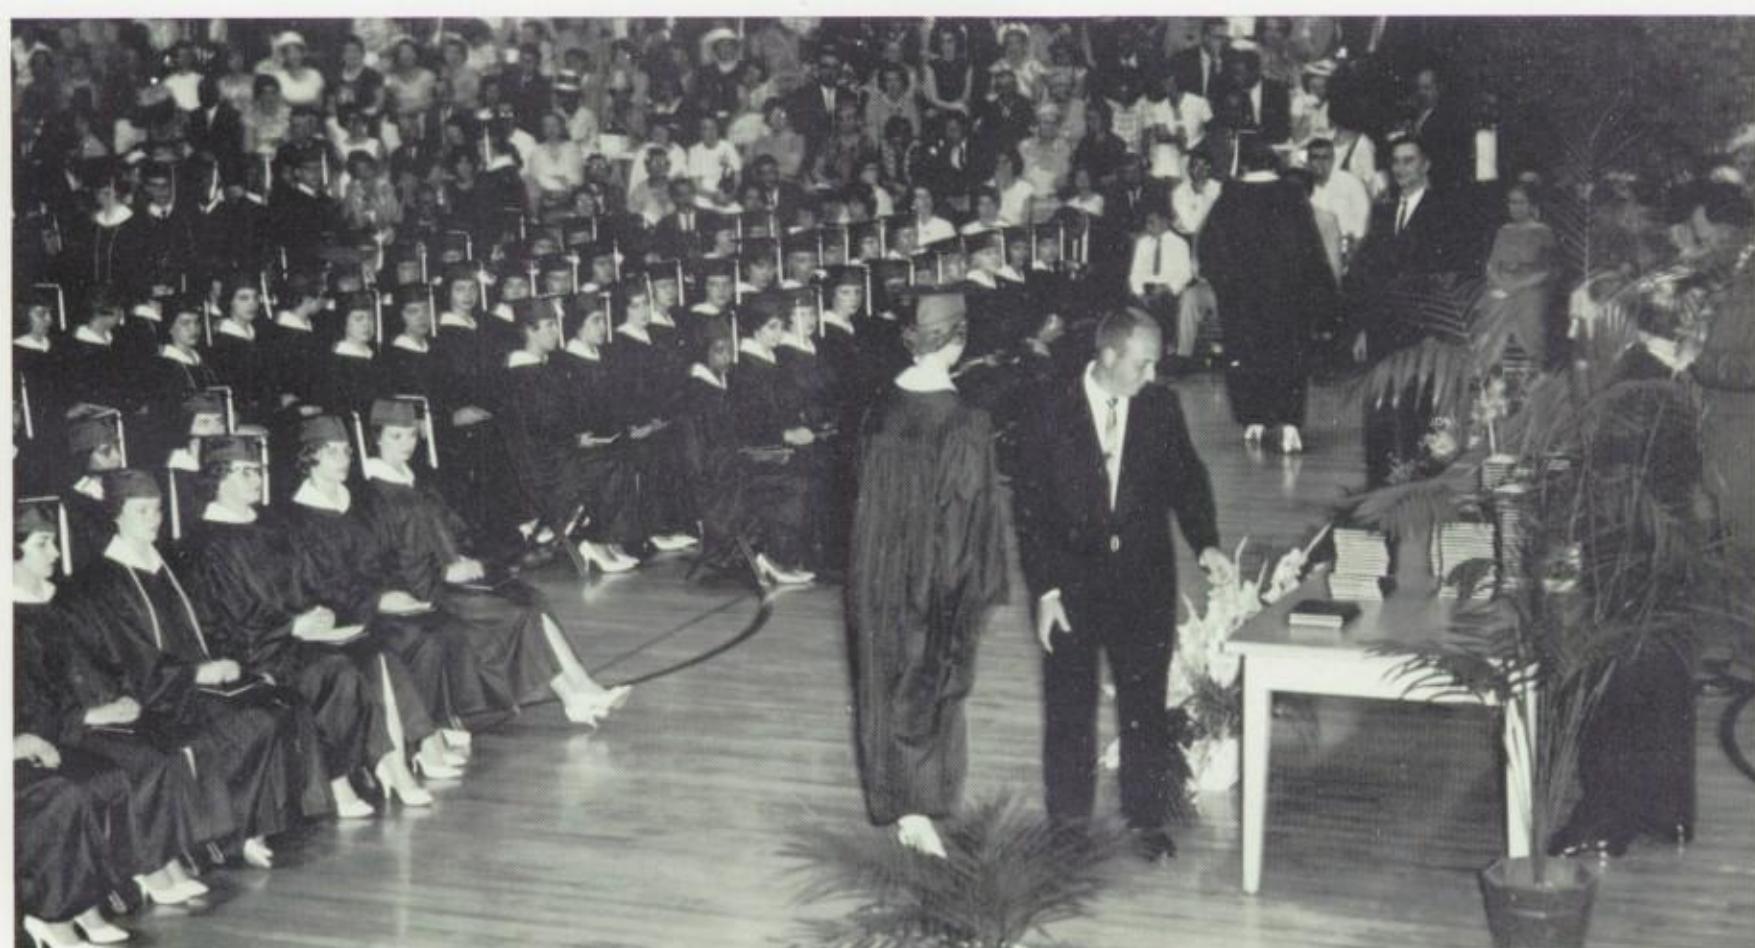

This year the Bausch and Lomb Award was awarded to Paul Gard for his outstanding work in chemistry.

Reverend Klosterman of the Fairmont Methodist Church opens graduation with the invocation.

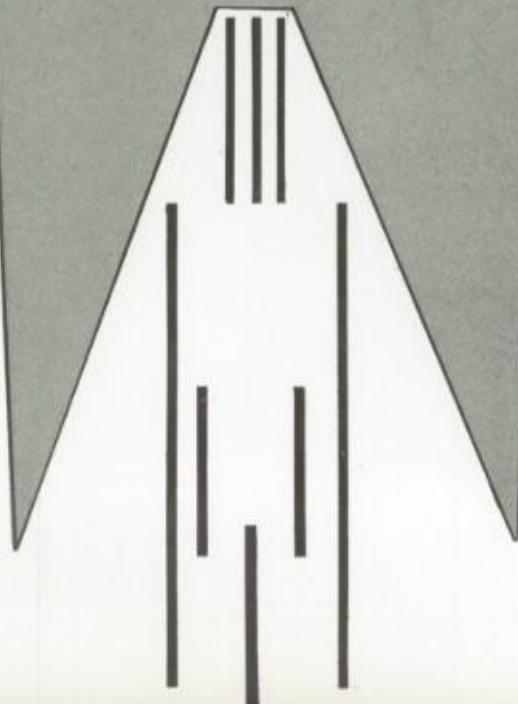

John Lund smilingly accepts the Science Award.

Alma Mater

Oh Lockport Alma
Mater,
For you today
we stand;
Sweetheart of the prairie,
Your heart is always true.
The portals of our learning
In halls we love
so well;
Maroon and white, we're for you,
Our loyalty we pledge.
